Visitor Guide

Pan House A-ONE

Our delicious baked goods are made with all natural ingredients and yeasts. Come on in for the freshest breads in town.

Akaneya Dango shop

Traditional Japanese dango sweets and a wide variety of western-style roll cakes and confections. We recommend our 'cream cheese manju' dumplings.

La figure

A cozy boutique featuring handmade arts and crafts. From fashion accessories to interior decor pieces, with an eco-friendly lifestyle approach.

Miyazawa Confectionery Studio

Try our moist and delicious specialty 'Caramelized' mouse. Our 'Red Brick' roll cakes are made with an Ooi Baba Plaza design motif. Sit down and enjoy right here in our cafe corner.

Nostalgic Morioka Ooi Baba Plaza

Opened in 1909 as an equestrian training pavilion, this sturdy building is now home to the 'Red Brick Festival' and winter illumination. An historically significant landmark, it's well loved by our locals.

Prefectural sports arena

Ichinokura Historic House & Garden

The home & garden built by late-Meiji era politician Hiroshi Abe, now maintained by a local historical conservancy. Enjoy the seasons with Chuson-ji lotus in summer, gorgeous fall foliage, and a lavish Hina Matsuri doll pageant in winter.

Miura Soba noodle shop

Doguya-san

Featuring select furniture, interior decor, and specialty home goods all with a focus on the latest trends and fashion designs.

Bistro Ginga

All our delicious dishes are prepared only with locally sourced ingredients.
