

Iwate Numakunai Station

Atago Shrine

Climb up the stairs to a scenic spot overlooking the whole Numakunai area.

Naraya

Boulangerie Guormand

We recommend our rolls and bread made with local Iwate town blueberries. Also try our cute melon turtle muffins.

Patisserie Briller

Our flavorful desserts are crafted with local Iwate eggs and wheat. Try our specialty "Maru Maru" Camembert cheese crepes.

AI Plaza in the JR station building

Featuring Fugane-brand tender Shorthorn-beef box lunches. Available only with prior-day reservation.

Photo Spot!

Ishigami no Oka Museum of Art

Our special exhibit hall always has something new to see. Enjoy all four seasons outdoors in the stone sculpture garden, our 'Lovers Sanctuary', and the 'Lavender Fair'.

Roadside Station Ishigami no Oka

Taste our blueberry soft ice cream and Iwate town yakiudon. Locally grown cabbage and other fresh vegetables are available for purchase direct from the farmers.

LUPINA

Iwate Kawaguchi Station

Bons Rapport

Seasonal pizzas and pastas made with locally sourced ingredients. Stop in for a French course lunch.

Photo Spot!

Statue of Keiko Sonoi

On the 50th anniversary of the end of WW2, a bronze statue of the famous actress, Keiko Sonoi was erected here in the hope for world peace, promotion of the arts, and preservation of human dignity. Take some great pictures with Mt. Iwate in the background.

Dining Room Tamura

Our master chef recommends the sushi and ramen set. Also try our 'Mabo Ramen' made with delicious spicy tofu.

from December 2017..

Check out the new IGR station and its 'Cabbage Motif'!

Teishaba Karaoke

Keiko Sonoi - Journey into a Dream

Kawaguchi IGR Station 2nd Floor - photos from the life of Takarazuka Musical Review actress Keiko Sonoi (ne Tomi Shibata) who grew up in Kawaguchi and was a victim of the atomic bombing of Hiroshima.

Mt. Iwate =>

